--Reverend William Kren

Romulus Community United Methodist Church

"This group of ladies put smiles on faces that don't often have a reason to smile. They remind our residents of better/happy time that are locked up inside. We feel blessed to be on the Voices in Harmony Chorus tour of performances and highly recommend them for your event!"

--Michelle Mitchell, Activities Director

The Gilbert Residence

"We see this group greatly impacting our community and our church through their talents and use of their gifts. We are proud of their diligence, energy, and talent that they so willingly share with not only our particular community, but also our country."

--Laura C. Kelsey, Pastoral Staff

Ypsilanti First Presbyterian Church

"Singing without accompaniment in four-part harmony, they create a powerful, colorful sound while performing old favorites in American music."

--Stephanie Kadel-Taras,

Independent Times

"Relationships are a positive off-shoot to the group, but what initially brings them together is the music."

--Emma Jackson

Ann Arbor News

"I'd like to thank you and members of the Voices in Harmony Chorus for performing at Silver Maples of Chelsea! It means a great deal to our residents. No matter what their cognitive level, they always respond positively to music. If residents are not able to sometimes clearly form a meaningful sentence, they often know every word to a song they've heard years ago. If they initially come to a music program feeling tired, they leave feeling invigorated!"

Fact Sheet

Information about Voices in Harmony

About Us

- Non-profit community chorus
- Affiliated with Sweet Adelines International, a worldwide singing organization for women
- Provide fun, exciting, and innovative entertainment with a variety of music sung in 4-part harmony.
- Formerly known as the County Connection Chorus

Our Members

- With 65 members and growing, there's probably a member of Voices in Harmony living near you!
- Chorus members represent many different communities and several Michigan counties.
- Ages, ethnicities, backgrounds, and musical experience are as varied as the individual singers themselves.

Our Style

If your only experience with barbershop is "Lida Rose" from The Music Man, then you're in for a pleasant surprise.

Voices in Harmony has a full repertoire of both classic and newer popular songs, from "Over the Rainbow" to "Where Everybody Knows Your Name" (from "Cheers"), to Martina McBride's "In My Daughter's Eyes" and "Happy Together," the popular 1960's classic recorded by The Turtles. Along with planned ensemble choreography, in the past we've used puppets, trashcans, neon gloves, and Raggedy Ann dolls to entertain our audiences.

Who knows what we'll use in the future? But it's guaranteed to be fun for both the singers and the audience.
